

Introducing Nessie

Capital One's hackathon API

Nessie gives you access to a multitude of real public-facing data such as ATM and bank locations, along with mock customer account data.

Use HTTP requests to simulate:

- peer-to-peer transactions
- weekly paychecks
- even scheduling bills for customers!

This is all structured in a way that resembles how we actually run things here at Capital One!